AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

A MILE OF MARCHING CHILDREN. SUNDAY-SCHOOLS CELEBRATE THEIR ANNI-VERSARY WITH PARADES.

VERSARY WITH PARADES.

A mile of marching children, with 13,000 in the ranks, watched by twice as many spectators, filled 167 schools in the Brooklyn Sunday-School Union, with 87,000 scholars, officers and teachers, who celebrated yesterday the sixty-second anniversary of the establishment of Sunday-schools in Brooklyn.

The signal for holding the exercises was given by ringing the City Hall and church bells at 11 o'clock. Flags were displayed in many public places and in the streets where the children were to parade house-fronts were abundantly decorated. Early in the afternoon Chicago, FIFTH AVENUE-Senator Arthur P. Gorman, groups of gayly dressed children began to appear in of Maryland, and Curtis Guild, of Boston, GRANDthe streets and at the appointed time anniversary exercises were held in half a hundred churches, several schools uniting in each for the purpose. Besides the many Brooklyn ministers who spoke, Dr. Henry M. Sanders, of New-York; the Rev. John L. Scudder, of Jersey City; Colonel A. S. Bacon and Silas B; Dutcher ere among the speakers. After the church exercises the parades were held in ten different places.

The Prospect Park division, with thirty-one schools and 13,000 children, assembled in the Pack early in the afternoon and held the customary exercises in two sections, and then marched about the green meadow over routes marked out by guidons and past two re-viewing stands, whereon were Mayor Chapin, James S. Case, Grand Marshal; Silas M. Giddings, Benjamin Bayliss, the Rev. Lindsay Parker, Park Commissioners Brower and Luscomb, the Rev. Dr. R. B. Hull, Dr. G. W. Brush and others. A pretty sight was presented by the thousands of children in bright costnu and carrying gayly wrought banners. On the hillsides overlooking the scene were gathered thousands of interested spectators. The display was regarded as the finest ever given in the Park, and the arrangements for seeing it were better than usual.

There were nearly 6,000 in the Heights division, which paraded under the leadership of Dwight Studwell, in Clinton, Henry and Pierrepont sts., and was reviewed by pastors and others. Owing to the death of Dr. Van Dyke, the exercises in his church were omitted, and the school did not join the parade.

The Clinton-ave, division, with twenty-two schools, numbering 10,000, marched up and down Clintonave., between Willoughby and Gates aves., after the exercises in nine churches. Owing to the roughness of the pavement, the children marched on the side-Another large division, with twenty schools walks. Another large division, with twenty schools and 8,000 pupils, paraded in Bushwick-ave, from Lafayette-ave, to Ivy-st. The Tompkins Park division was led by Philo W. Schofield, and there were ten schools, with 6,700 in the ranks, who assembled and paraded in Tompkins Park. The Redford division had 6,000 pupils from thirteen schools, and the parade was held in Gates and Grand aves. In various other parts of the city the Ocean Hill, Suyvesant-ave, South trooklyn and Carvoll Park divisions paraded. After the marching, all the schools returned to their respective churches and secured refreshments.

AFRICAN METHODISTS IN CONFERENCE.

The seventy-first session of the New-York Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church met yesterday morning in the Union Bethel Church. Schenectady-ave, and Dean-st., and was called to order by Bishop H. M. Turner, of Atlanta, Georgia. Bishop said: "I have long since concluded that God intends men to enter the ministry when they are young. I am positively opposed to men of an advanced age entering our ministerial ranks, and I have reached that position from God's word. Men who have wasted their time, and have failed at everything they have undertaken, have jumped over into the ministry." The elected officers without contest: Secretary, R. H. Shirley, of Owego; statistical secretary, alcohol. Horace Talbert, of Emffalo; recording secretary, J. J. ore, of Flushing; marshals, Deacons R. R. Praither, of Glen Cove; Thomas Taggairt, of Kingston; B. J. The announcement was made that the Rev. Messrs.

Theodore Gould, W. N. Berry and P. E. Mills were 1 p. m. transferred from the New-England Conference; and that W. Peterson, R. R. Praither and Morris Riley were transferred from the New-Jersey to the New-York Cor ference; and they were enrolled as members. The Rev. George D. Jimmerson of the Virginia Conference gave an encouraging account of the condition of the shurch in that State, and told how it was advancing under the influence of education and a higher standard of Christianity. Presiding Elder Derricks recommended for admission on trial W. A. Heath, formerly a member of the Wesleyau Conference, George Edwards and A. L. Rouldin; and Presiding Elder Shirley recommended John L. Porter, of New-York, George Washington Cohen, and Robert Coleman, of Elmira, all of whom were sent before the committee on admissions for further examination. Rev. F. F. Giles, of Albany, preached last night the annual sermon to a a large congregation.

WERE SALARIES ILLEGALLY INCREASED? The Bridge Trustees held a special meeting yesterday ofternoon to consider the report of the committee which recently raised the salaries of the men employed There were twelve trustees present including Controller Myers. The committee reported the advances of salaries and wages already made, showing general increases.

Mr. Skinner also presented an opinion from the New-York Corporation Counsel, who held that the trustees could not delegate to a sub-committee the power to regulate and adjust salaries of officers and agents of the trustees. The Bridge is a highway and under control of trustees whose powers are analogous to those of a Common Council, and it has been held that such a body cannot delegate its powers to a committee. In view of this opinion the report was laid on the table until the next meeting.

THE PUGITIVE GOT STUCK IN A CHIMNEY. While Edward Flynn was trying yesterday morning to escape from the police who sought to arrest him for an assault committed two weeks ago, he went up a chimney in the house adjoining his home, No. 302 Bicks-st., in his night shirt. But he was caught in a narrow part of it and could not move. The policemen discovered his predicament and tried to pull him out of the top by a rope dropped to him, but were unable to do so. They then fastened a rope to his legs and pulled him down. He was black with soot.

A RECEPTION TO MRS. JEFFERSON DAVIS. A reception was given yesterday afternoon, at the bouse of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Mason, in Joralemon-st., to Mrs. Jefferson Davis, Miss Winnie Davis and Mrs. "Stonewall" Jackson. Many well-known persons were present. The house was finely decorated and a quartet of colored people sang plantation melodies. Mrs. Mason is of Southern birth.

IN FAVOR OF THE VANDERBILTS

HARRY ALLEN'S COMPLAINT DISMISSED.

HE WAS SUING WILLIAM H. VANDERBILT'S

EXECUTORS-AN ALLEGED AGREE-MENT NOT PROVED.

The complaint was dismissed by Judge Patterson, in the Supreme Court, yesterday in the suit of Harry Allen, a grandson of Commodore Vanderbilt, against the executors of William II. Vanderbilt. Harry Allen alleged that William II. Vanderbilt had agreed with the plaintiff's mother, Ethelinda V. Allen, to give her $100,000 in excess of the amount paid to any of the other children of Commodore Vanderbilt. This agreement was alleged to have been made in settling up Commodore Vanderbilt's estate. The whole suit turned upon this agreement, and as the plaintiff failed to prove the making of it, Judge Patterson dismissed the com

The plaintiff depended upon ex-Judge Matthews as a witness to establish this alleged oral agreement, but Mr. Matthews could not remember having heard of such an agreement. He knew that William H. Vander bilt paid 8600,000 to Mrs. Allen in excess of the amount she received under the will of her father, as the money was paid in his presence at the New-York Hotel. Ex-Judge Houston, who appeared for Allen, wanted to prove that Cornelius J. Vanderblit received $800,000 besides the amount he secured under the will of the Commodore, but the court decided that this testimony was irrelevant, as the alleged agreement had not been proved. Samuel Sinclair and Colonel Ethan Allen were called, but they could throw no light on the alleged agreement. Scott Lord, fr., was also a witness. Chauncey M. Depew was in court again as a witness for the defendance, but his testimony was not needed. the money was paid in his presence at the New-York

FAR ROCKAWAY'S SEWERAGE PROBLEM.

Those citizens of New-York City, Brooklyn and their suburbs who sail and fish in Jamaica Bay owe thanks to the State Board of Health for its action yesterday regarding the proposed disposal of the sewage Far Rockaway. The Sewer Commissioners of Far Rockaway proposed to empty the sewage directly into Norton's Creek, asserting that there was water and tide enough to float it out to sea. This the opposing property-owners proved was erreneous, as one end of the so-called creek, which is really only an artificially made channel, is almost dry at low water. then went into executive session and decided to return the proposed plans to the Sewer Commissioners, with the declaration that they would not be approved unless some means of emptying the sewage into deep, swiftly running water were used, or some other disposwithy running water were used, or some other disposal and de-odorizing works.

This decision establishes an important precedent, the value of which will be seen when the many other towns now growing up around Jamaica Bay find it necessary to build sowerage systems.

THE INJUNCTION WAS RATHER LATE.

Henry McAleenan, who con atributed $1,000 of the that has been sent to Archbishop Croke, of Cashel, Ireland, to relieve the suffering of the evicted tenantry who are in sore need, while the rival factions are struggling for supremacy, is a large contributor to all Irish movements looking to the freedom of that country. When asked yesterday what he thought of the action of the Parnellites in striving, by means of a legal injunction, to prevent the sending of this money he laughed. "Why," said he, "how can such action be seriously meant? The $15,000 has been already forwarded. Let those who are dissatisfied with what has been done take Back their subscriptions if they like; we don't want them."

Senator W. L. Brown, who presided at the meeting and is minself a large contributor, said: "In forming Federation of America-which by the way, is not yet organized—it was to reawalten interest in the Irish cause among sympathizers upon this side of the water, and in no way to interfere with any existing Irish societies who are laboring for the weifare of the Green Isle." SHE BROUGHT A TRUNK FULL OF BEADS. An Indian woman, who could speak no word of English, arrived at the Grand Central Station on Tuesday night, having travelled from the St. Regis Reservation with a trunk full of bead work, which she intended to sell in the city. With her was a pretty little girl, five years old, who carried a curious "papoose" doll. Friends had falled to meet the couple at the station, and the police sent them to Head-General E. S. Parker, clerk of the Bureau of Supplies at Headquarters, whose Indian name is nogowa (Open Door) conversed with the squaw and sent for Mrs. Converse, of No. 155 West Forty sixth-st., who takes an interest in the Indian colony n this city. It was learned that the squaw was Haggard Mentcke, and that the child was her grand-daughter, Mary McComber. They were taken away in the afternoon by Sarah A. Pierce, of No. 218

WHY THE DOILIES WERE DUTIABLE.

A correspondent has inquired regarding a decision of Secretary of the Treasury in the case of a Philadelphia woman who brought with her from Europe number of doilles which she had embroidered while abroad. The plain material was purchased in this country, but duty was assessed under one of the pro-visions of the new law, which allows exemptions for all wearing apparel and personal effects not mer-chandise, but provides further that articles which are returned to the United States and not advanced in value are admitted free of duty. These dollies had been increased in value abroad, and on that account, it is understood, the Secretary of the Treasury, under the law, could make no other decision.

A MAINE MINISTER'S ERRING SON.

Recorder Smyth sentenced William D. Luce, twentyfour years old, formerly of No. 140 West Fourth-st. to five years in the State's Prison yesterday in Gen eral Sessions. Luce pleaded guilty to forging the name of William Knowles, of No. 104 East Thirteenthst., to a check for 820. The prisoner's father, the Rev. John Luce, of Old Orchards, Me., wrote a touching letter to the Recorder, asking that the son be sent to the Elmira Reformatory; and the Rev. A. H. Mc-Kinney, of this city, joined in the plea. The Recorder, however, learned that Luce had been convicted of forgery before and that he had committed the crime many times here and in loston, and sent him to Sing

Davenport in zoology and Edward Hale in homiletics.

Upon the vote of the association of alumni asking for a change in the system of voting for overseers, so as to provide for election by the Australian system. such provision was made. It was voted that no action was necessary on the votes of the alumni asking that alumni of five years' standing be allowed to vote by letter and asking the board to consider whether any change was necessary in the acts of the Legislature change was necessary in the acts of the registering authorizing the election of overseers by the alumni, and providing that no one who holds the degree of A. B. from the college shall vote until five years after his graduation, although he may in the meantime have received a higher degree. The committee argued that the present method was necessary to provide against undergraduate prejudices.
